The Court notes on this 2nd day of September 1988 that the defendants have not complied with the Court order dated August 4, 1988. Such order ordered the defendants Terry McLaughlin and Mary McLaughlin to file an answer by August 24, 1988 or a default could be entered against them without further notice.

The Court now notes the defendants have not filed such as answer nor has anyone appeared for them. The Court finds such default should now be entered. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED the Trustee be and is authorized to sell the horses MC Jabaskfire, a gelding; MC Showdown, a stallion; and Tezita Ku, a mare, and her offspring. The Trustee is further authorized to transfer any and all required registration papers with such horses and the offspring to the purchaser and the Trustee is authorized to sign any required transfer documents required by the Arabian Horse Registry of America.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the Estate's right for a deficiency in the difference between the board bill and the net proceeds of such horses shall be preserved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the defendants' interest in a grey Mercedes automobile Model 190E 2.3, VIN WDB2010241A022429; year 1984 be terminated and such automobile shall be returned to the ownership of Bru-Bet Arabians, Inc. The Trustee, Habbo G. Fokkena, is authorized to repossess said automobile from the defendants or wherever such automobile may be located. The Trustee is also authorized to sign any required registration papers, transfer documents, or other documents of title to transfer said vehicle from the ownership of Terry McLaughlin and Mary Jean McLaughlin to Bru-Bet Arabians, Inc.
